

PIGS NO MATCH FOR ARMY COOKS

Negroes of 24th Infantry Make Football Tactics Win at Camp in Mexico.

Headquarters of Punitive Expedition, Mexico, July 5.—(Via Radio to Columbus, N. M.)—The Fourth was celebrated at headquarters camp Tuesday with an old fashioned field day and minstrel show given by the men of the 24th Infantry, negro.

One of the difficult problems faced by the referees was to decide the winner in a greased pig contest. Three pigs, well oiled, attempted to show their speed against 20 negro soldier cooks, who gave chase in white underwear. They were fast pigs, but no match for the cooks. Each pig was pinned to earth beneath a football matted formation. Then the referee would blow his whistle and try to unravel the crowd on the pig, but there were as many winners as there were places on the pig to secure holds. Finally, the referee adjudge the bunny hug as the best hold and awarded the pig accordingly. In case of a dispute the amount of grease on the white underwear was taken in evidence.

After dark negro singers gathered on a large mound where they entertained the camp with songs and monologues.

REAL PUNCH IN THESE INTERVIEWS

Given to El Paso People For What They Are Worth and Readers Can Decide.

Read these interviews, just secured, and see what you think of them. They are from very well known El Paso people and are about Vitalitas. There is truly a punch in some of them. Does it reach you?

Experience Taught Mrs. Haley.
I have strong confidence in Vitalitas, from personal use and what I have done for people of my acquaintance. If one needs a tonic you can bank on it. Experience has taught me I can bank on Vitalitas as a dependable tonic. Mrs. Ella Haley, 2044 Ave. A.

Is He 75 or 40?
If a man is as old as he feels then F. O. McCauley, a prominent retired merchant of Lordsburg, New Mexico, who is in the city, is comparatively young. In an interview he said: "I am 75 but I don't feel a day over 40. It is just wonderful that the way Vitalitas has brought me out. I have suffered from indigestion ever since I can remember. I have only taken Vitalitas for 15 days, and it certainly feels good to be able to eat all I want. I can now average eight hours' sleep every night and I don't know what it is to wake up. I want others to know of Vitalitas."

Red Looks Good to Dentist.
Mr. F. Dent, a popular employee of the new court house, who had been a sufferer of chronic stomach trouble and heart disorder, gave this little interview: "My heart would run away when I would lay down. Nothing I ate would digest. I got but little sleep and had to lay off a few days each month. I bought Vitalitas and from the start it got me over my troubles. I enjoy my meals now, my heart beats right; have not had one dizzy spell, had looks good to me, for I can now sleep. I can work faster since I used Vitalitas."

Many Others Know.
Floods of testimonials are coming into the Vitalitas demonstration, praising this remarkable tonic and reconstructive. Vitalitas is non-alcoholic, is free of dopes and is beyond question Nature's most effective medicine.

Call at Kelly & Pollard's Drug Store and talk with Mr. Moser and have a free sample drink of Vitalitas.—Adv.

TWO HELD FOR PARKER KILLING

Aged Mexican Couple Reported to Have Been Captured in Mexico.

An aged couple, believed to have murdered Mr. and Mrs. William Parker last week at the Parker's ranch, 35 miles southwest of Hachita, N. M., has been captured in Mexico, according to a report received in El Paso. They are to be brought back to Hachita, the report states.

A posse was on the trail of the murderers 24 hours after the double crime. It is said. Among them were two brothers of William Parker.

Enemies of Parkers.
The aged couple charged with the crime were formerly employed by the Parkers, according to W. L. Ammonett, a local cattle buyer, who is a friend of the Parker family. It is believed these people had some grievance against the Parkers, though the Parkers were not known to have enemies.

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Parker were found near the corral of the ranch with several bullet holes. Mr. Parker was shot in the back and his wife was shot in the body. They were mangled at the time of the murder.

DR. ATL CLAIMS TO HAVE PROOF OF VILLA'S DEATH

Washington, D. C., July 5.—That he had secured conclusive information that Francisco Villa died several weeks ago in the state of Chihuahua, was the assertion of Dr. Atl, a Mexican City doctor, here for a peace conference called by the American Union Against Militarism. Dr. Atl telegraphed the statement to Gen. Carranza.

His informant, he said, were two Villa followers he had met in El Paso, who claimed they were with their chief when he succumbed to wounds received in a fight in the Sierra with Carranza soldiers and had helped bury his body near Viquitas, or Boguilla, Chih. One of the Mexicans who told this story was named Gutierrez, Dr. Atl said. He urged Gen. Carranza to investigate.

U. S. MAY RETAIN PART OF MEXICO IN CASE OF WAR

Chicago, Ill., July 5.—As payment for the cost of taking up arms and as a punishment for the Mexicans' actions against America, a part of Mexico will be retained, if the United States goes to war with Mexico, asserted senator James Hamilton Lewis, in his fourth of July speech at the Lake Forest and North Shore towns celebration.

The senator said that however much president Wilson and congress might wish to avoid any seizure of territory, the government would be forced to permanent occupation of Mexico by the people of this country just as was done after the Mexican war of 1846-1848.

"The United States does not seek war with Mexico, nor conquest of Mexican territory," declared the speaker.

MILITIA AT NOGALES, ARIZ., DRILLS IN EARLY MORNING
Douglas, Ariz., July 5.—Members of the New Jersey militia were awakened at daybreak today for several hours drilling before the Arizona sun became too warm. A rest period was called at 10 o'clock, officers stating they believed the men would be kept in better condition by performing their duties during the early morning and late afternoon.

The attitude has affected many of the militiamen.

A second vaccination inspection was made by the medical officers today. Most of the guardsmen were vaccinated while en route to the border.

MOVEMENT OF NATIONAL GUARDSMEN IS RELAXED

San Antonio, Tex., July 5.—Notable relaxation in the movement of national guardsmen was pointed out today at army headquarters. The first big rush was nearly completed. Almost 45,000 guardsmen are either at border stations or on the way.

REFUGEES SENT OUT OF MEXICO

538 Who Reach San Diego Say They Were Told By Carrancistas to Leave.

San Diego, Cal., July 5.—W. A. Holton, of St. Louis, an employee of the United Sugar company of Los Mochis, Mexico, who arrived here Tuesday night on the naval transport Buffalo with 538 other American and British refugees from west Mexican towns and ranches, said today that he was one of a party of 11 Americans who were held recently by Carrancista soldiers in that town. Arms and ammunition were taken from them and they were told to get out of Mexico as quickly as possible.

Twenty-three Americans were left at Mochis, guarding the big sugar refineries there, and they have been given word by Carranza officials that they will not be molested within 24 hours after a declaration of war between the United States and Mexico. Holton said. The men were heavily armed. More than 15,000 gallons of alcohol are stored in the tanks adjacent to the sugar refineries and every effort is being made to ship this out of the country. The sugar cane crop this year is exceedingly large and approximately 15,000 Mexicans around Los Mochis depend upon the operation of the refineries for a living. The Carrancista authorities do not care to stop the mills unless ordered by the first chief, according to Holton.

Aged Woman Escapes Harm.

Mrs. E. E. Watson, aged 65, of New York City told a story of how, riding in a caboose attached to a Southern Pacific of Mexico pay train carrying more than $100,000 in gold, she escaped possible harm from bandits in a wild ride from Ortiz to Ensenada. She said no sooner had she reached Ensenada when news came that Carrancistas had seized the railroads throughout northern Mexico.

Many Refugees Penniless.
More refugees will arrive here from Salinas and Manzanilla on the supply steamer Glacier early next week. Many of the refugees landed here by the Buffalo are penniless and they were being cared for today by the San Diego chapter of the Red Cross. All expect to return to their former homes in this country as soon as they can communicate with friends or relatives.

Among the refugees were 162 employees of the Southern Pacific Railway of Mexico, who left the headquarters of the railroad at Empalme, Sonora. The departure of these men, nearly all skilled workers, left the railroad line and shops practically in the hands of Mexicans.

Among the refugees were 40 British subjects and a small number of other nationalities, other than Americans. The majority declared they left west Mexican coast ports and points in the interior in obedience to American consular warnings and not because of fear for their lives or property.

Red Cross Relieves Needs.
Nearly all of the refugees had what few personal effects they could pick up prior to the Buffalo's departure. Many of them were practically penniless and these were given assistance by the San Diego chapter of the Red Cross.

New Version of Manzanilla Clash.
A new version of the recent clash at Manzanilla between American sailors and Mexican soldiers was brought here by persons who refused to permit the use of their names. It was to the effect that ensign O. O. Kessing and assistant paymaster O. Mowat of the gunboat Annapolis, who were temporarily held prisoners after seeking to parley with port officials, were saved from being shot only through intervention by the wife of the American consul. It was during this encounter that boatswain mate Laughter was fatally wounded.

Bluejackets Seize Ship Sonora.
Another duty being for the first time here was that a party of American bluejackets from the cruiser Cleveland boarded the interned American steamer Sonora at Guaymas and under cover of darkness, cast loose the anchor chain, threw overboard the Carrancista watchman and towed the vessel out of the harbor. She was the Sonora, sheltered by the Cleveland, was used to house refugees until the Buffalo's arrival.

EL PASO WOMEN SERVE REFRESHMENTS TO MILITIA
El Paso women, working under the direction of the El Paso chapter of the Red Cross, are furnishing lemonade, ice, coffee and sandwiches to the national guard troops who are passing through El Paso en route to the northern border or are detaining here and setting up their camps at Camp Pershing and Camp Cotton.

Tuesday evening a committee of women, headed by Mrs. C. E. Kelly, representing the Catholic Benevolent society, Mrs. C. O. Coffin and others met the train, distributed lemonade and arranged with the management of the Harvey house to serve coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts to the soldiers who were going through to the west.

In addition, quantities of lemonade were taken to Camp Pershing and Camp Cotton under the direction of Miss Anna Klug.

The trains which arrived during the day Wednesday were also met by a committee of women. The women of the Red Cross are anxious for cash contributions with which to buy ice, lemon and sugar.

MRS. NASH NOT MEMBER OF PREPAREDNESS LEAGUE
Mrs. Luther Roberts Nash, of Boston, Mass., who gave a Ford automobile to the Eighth Massachusetts regiment for its use while in camp here, says she is not an officer or member of the Preparedness league of Massachusetts.

"I am in sympathy with the movement but I am not here in the interest of this league. I do not wish to be misunderstood back in Boston."

"I gave the car personally to the regiment after I had made an effort to hire a car but because of the strike of the street car company, I was unable to get one, so I purchased the car and sent it down to the camp."

MEXICAN SLAPS CHILD; OUTBREAK IS RESULT
Vinita, Okla., July 5.—Violence was threatened the Mexican residents of Vinita Tuesday night by a mob of 500 citizens, enraged by reports that a Mexican waiter had slapped the face of a small American boy. A number of Mexicans were driven from the town, while others were forced to take refuge in the county jail, which was closely guarded by armed policemen against a crowd that surrounded the building for more than an hour. Mexican residences and stores were draped with flags and hunting by the mob.

200 AMERICANS INTEND TO STAY IN MEXICO CITY
Washington, D. C., July 5.—Special agent Rodgers informed the state department today that over 200 Americans remained in Mexico City and all these probably would stay in the city no matter what happened. He said 200 Americans citizens, the last desiring to leave, started for Veracruz on July 2.

RECEIVED FROM PENNSYLVANIA TROOPS AND NEW JERSEY GUARDSMEN ARRIVE FROM EAST.

on the verge of war every day to judge from the papers back home.

The militiamen in all the new camps spent the fourth working in the morning and resting in the afternoon. Among the various forms of amusement was a victrola. The militia boys gathered around the little instrument and sang in tune and out of tune. The music of the victrola, the melodies they sang with the girls back home.

It Isn't All Fun.
Some were sad. There was no little pathos in the huge camp, all chaos and assembly filled with trouble about nothing. The saddened ones crouched on the camp chairs and recalled the scenes of parting with their loved ones, mother, "sis" brother, "dad" and the girls who played such good tennis and sang so well. The reverse of all this was written on the white faces, yet to be tanned by the Texas winds.

The regulars noticed the sadness. "They'll be a few who'll desert," said one seasoned regular. "I've had that homesick feeling and the feeling that I'm shut out from everyone in the world. I've had the temptation sometimes to desert myself."

Optimists Spending Money Freely.
But some cannot be saddened. It is these fellows of the militia who are spending every red cent they have on the first week of their arrival, buying postcards for the folks back home. An enterprising J. Rufus Wallingford had a fine field at Camp Pershing. While he was not dispensing five cent cups of milk to thirsty rookies, he was selling $20 Carranza currency for 25 cents, $10 bills for a dime and the insignificant "fives" for 5 cents. They sold rapidly.

Snapping Up Venustiano's Paper.
The militia boys are also getting a corner on Carranza money. They are buying as much of the currency as they can get to send back home. An enterprising J. Rufus Wallingford had a fine field at Camp Pershing. While he was not dispensing five cent cups of milk to thirsty rookies, he was selling $20 Carranza currency for 25 cents, $10 bills for a dime and the insignificant "fives" for 5 cents. Look Out Mexico! Ninth Massachusetts Gets 24 Pairs Of Boxing Gloves
There was rejoicing Wednesday in the camp of the Ninth Massachusetts Infantry when two dozen pairs of boxing gloves arrived from Boston.

They were the gift of John S. Dooley, "gentleman-fighter" to cardsharps. O'Connell, of the Boston archdiocese. But the boxing gloves were not pressed into service. The soldiers from the east do not relish violent exercise or exertion of any kind under a sun that shoots the mercury to 110 on the slightest provocation, they say.

There are many of the Ninth's men who are adepts in the manly art but they are reserving the regimental bouts for the first cool evening.

Co. D Has Close Shave on Rio Grande Last Night
Company D of the Ninth Massachusetts national guard, had a close shave after dark Tuesday night at Camp Cotton, near the Rio Grande and Mexico.

It was a battle with beards, not bullets and the gallant Ninth company won out by cutting through the bearded wire entanglements which had been thrown up by the enemy since they left home.

The barbed wire was the beard of the militia boys which had become like the famous wire used in the trenches in Europe by the action of the dry desert air and the alkali dust.

Capt. Jack Dunn, of company D, is an officer of the Gillette Razor company and he brought enough razors along to supply his entire company and they all had clean shaves after the day's work Tuesday evening. Now the boys of company D are known as the "barber boys" and they all look as sleek as haberdasher clerks since they got their company shave.

What does a "Light Hearted Havana" stand for?

EXACTLY what Tom Moore stood for twenty years ago he stands for today—True Havana fragrance coupled with true mildness.

From the start this type of cigar has made a definite place for itself with smokers who "think before they smoke."

But Tom Moore must not be confused with other Havana filled cigars which lack Tom Moore's genial smoking qualities.

3000 MEXICAN TROOPS ARE APPROACHING NOGALES
Nogales, Ariz., July 5.—Three thousand Mexican troops were reported today to be concentrating at Agua Zarca, 10 miles south of Nogales. A large part of them are said to be Indians. In the state of Sonora, it is stated, there are 25,000 armed men who are moving northward slowly, hampered by the demoralization of railway transportation. The coal supply of Sonora is said to be almost exhausted and light locomotives are being equipped to burn wood.
